HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, November 26, 1864.—Read first and second times, made special order, and ordered to be printed.

[By Mr. LYON, from Committee on Ways and Means.]

A BILL

To be entitled "An Act to exempt from taxation the capital of bonds and certificates issued by the Confederate States."

1     SECTION 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do
2     enact, That henceforth no tax shall be assessed upon the amount or
3     value of any bond, or any certificate of loan or of indebtedness,
4     issued or to be issued by the Confederate States of America :
5     Provided, however, That the same amount of tax as upon income
6     derived from other sources, shall be assessed, levied and collected
7     upon the dividends or interest of all such bonds and certificates,
8     except those of which the dividends or interest are or may be
9     specially exempted by law from taxation.

1     SEC. 2. This act shall be in force from and after the passing
2     thereof.
